Where Do We Go From Here in 2022?

A year ago, I wrote “2020 is certainly a year most Christians would like to put behind them. Pandemic fears, political divides, and social unrest have left many exhausted and exasperated. Many have been isolated in their homes for months and even when we can leave, we have to do so in fear and behind a mask. America is more divided than it has ever been. Divisive labels abound everywhere—conservative/liberals, right wing/left wing, extremist/socialists. Basic issues like the sanctity of life, dignity of marriage and freedom of religion are hotly contested.” As we face this last day of 2021, I’m sure you agree with me that not many of these things changed for the better over the course of the last 364 days. However, what has not changed is that at the end of another difficult year, God is still on the throne of the universe.
